my 3 loved Sweetheart,

When back today to visit Robert and Andie and I didn't have any difficulty reaching their house.

glad that I found both boys at home and they seemed pleased in seeing me as I told them I especially came back to visit them.

Roberts' mother gave me ~~the~~ some delicious cake that she baked, and it reminded me of my mother's so sponge cake that she use to bake once in a blue moon because the cake is very similar.

They insisted I return again if I could, and we fixed the date for Saturday in which they

it in my wallet and it could have easily fall out when I opened my wallet. It was the Good Conduct Medal and to me it doesn't make any difference if I have it or not but I regret losing it because I thought possible you would like to have it.

Back in the States I could purchase the medal in any Army and Navy store but over here its impossible to replace the original.

If I find the medal or obtain another one I'll mail it to you.

Mail hasn't been arriving here during the past few days except for news paper. One of these days sacks bags of letters should be here for the boys and my self. I love you darling and always thinking of you want me to come for a meat dinner. If I can possible go I will because I hate to miss a good French meal.
Forever yours Ben

We spoke of the pictures Robert took with his camera and if I return Saturday they (snapshots) should be ready, therefore keep your fingers crossed and possible I be making you snapshots on Sunday.

As soon as I find a suitable room for developing my pictures I'll do so. That may not be long either.

I was give another medal today but darling now that I'm looking for it to enclose it in letter I can't find it. I suspect I already lost it as I placed
