June 16, 1943
Wednesday.

My Dearest Judy,

I have a few minutes before I start on my night problem which will be a hike.

I made a mistake by saying I would be getting Wednesday afternoon's off. The way it seems now I will be having Thursday mornings free.

Received your lovely long letter written on Monday. It sure was good to read, you will be down. It's very nice of your mother to escort you down here but I think it would be too much of a hardship for her. It's good to hear that you feel it's O.K. for you to come down by yourself because I feel the same way about it.

It would be alright if you came down the first of August but I would like to be with you on your birthday and are forth anniversary.

Dearest, the guest house isn't operated by the U.S.O. The guest house is run by Camp Croft. It's true about the three days as I mentioned before. Did you understand ^{concerning accommodations} me? The guest house will recommend private families where you can stay after your three or four days at the guest house. So dear, I guess that takes care of where you will stay. Do you agree with me?

Tomorrow night I expect to go into town and get my pictures. I'll mail it to you immediately.

That's all the time I have for the present dear
I close with mountains of love
Ben
