my Dearest Judy

Every day your letters are more and more definite that you are coming down here. I wish you would make it definite. It's too bad that you and Imie can't take the same train.

Dear Dad I answered your mother's letter. I also thanked her for the delicious cake and I explained why I didn't answer her personally. I didn't mention about being alright for you to come down alone. If she still feels it's dangerous to allow you to come down alone by next week then I'll write her a letter. I feel you could do a better job of convincing her because you are able to talk while my letter won't mean much! your schedule seems to coincide with mine. so it O.K darling.

I'm glad to hear that you are feeling much better now.

I don't think I will be able to meet you when you arrive in Spartanburg. Don't let that stop you.

yes, you told me before about Elaine Mendelson. It's a little surprising, isn't it? Didn't she recently get engaged? How is Sylvia Boy's friend Howard making out?

That's all the time for the present.
I was unable to go into town today because I had a detail job to go. I was a tablewaiter. I get the picture Saturday. Over the week-end I'll write you a longer letter.

With all my love & kisses
John
