Dearest Judy,

I'm back at the V.S.O
again after eating supper.
I had Roast Long Island Ducking which reminded me of the times we had that at Childs restaurant.

When to the movies this afternoon to see "The Hard Way".

My buddy Charlie,
and I, are waiting now, waiting until 8:30 o'clock when the bowling alleys open again. We figured we will bowl a game
or two before going back to camp.

I sent my ~~mother~~ a money order for twenty dollars because I thought I'm carrying around too much money with me. It isn't safe to keep money in the ~~locker~~ because there isn't any lock on it. Before I'll know it I'll be payed again.

I happened to <sup>win</sup> make ten dollars ~~one~~ last Sunday on the only time I really played cards since I'm in the Army. Don't worry dear I won't gamble my money away. My standings so far are winnings	-	Lossings

10.00		00

Total $10 on the asset side.

OK?

During the later part of last week as I told you I was at the motor school. On Saturday we went to in groups of four into a 1/2 ton truck. all the fellows that know how to drive had a chance at the wheel. we drove around camp for two hours. I just sat in the rear.

since most of the fellows know how to drive I doubt if they will take the time to teach a few fellows.

The hot weather has caused all my envelopes to be ruin. The flap where the glue is has stuck onto the other part of the paper.

if I take a few envelopes here they to will be ruin so instead of waiting until tomorrow I'm going to mail this letter now.

If I have an opportunity to buy more envelopes than I write another letter tomorrow.

Charlie just informed me that it's 20 minutes past 8 o'clock so dearest I'll be showing off

Keep your chin up smile and hope for the best. I close as always with all my love to you sweet

Ben
