MY DEAREST BELOVED JUDY

Today is the day. you have reached another year in your life and you are about to start on another which I hope will give you happiness and enjoyment every minute of everyday.

Darling as much as I would love to be with you on this occasion I find myself separated from you because of the world situation.

I didn't send you a birthday card as I believe I mentioned to you in a previous letter because I wanted the recording of my voice, regardless how poor it maybe, to be my birthday greetings to you. I hope you enjoy listening to it as much as I enjoyed making it for you.

I'm very sorry and disappointed that I couldn't hear of your voice last night but I had to attend a evening class in code and when I finally was able to get to a telephone it was too late.

I won't be able to call you tomorrow so I'll call you on Thursday evening. I figure it's better to call you late than not to call you at all.

Right now you must be out enjoying a show or what ever you are doing. I hope you are having a good time and I hope you received my flowers.

Did you? Honestly how is the voyage?

The florist could easier take advantage of the sale since I'm unable to see what how nice the flowers look. Was the florist shop, were the flowers came from, near your house.

I had to give the Spartanburg florist a flower shop near your home so you would receive them without any difficulty. After looking in the directory I selected the one at 2600 Broadway. How close was I?

Darling you don't have to be sorry about you parents changing from PM to the New York Post.
