my Dearest Judy,

Another week is passing and more rumors are being spread. One is that I'll be going on a three week ~~maneuver~~ maneuvers instead of the planned six days. Another is that ~~by~~ the plans and training officer is increasing our course from 14 to 17 weeks. I honestly don't know how true either statement is so I guess I'll have to wait until it is official announced. One thing I'm sure of it that the classes after mine will get 17 weeks of training.

instead of 14 weeks. I don't know if that applies to me. There is talk about going on a three week maneuver so it maybe true. Let you know as soon as possible. It certainly interferes with my plans.

Darling if you remember I once told you that you can't tell from one minute to the next what's going to happen in the Army.

Tonight there was suppose to be at the new outdoor theatre a show with the "Diamond Horseshoe" but the show doesn't seem to be ready to tour the camps so instead Camp Coft will have its own Special Service unit and an entertainer.

I've been reading in the New York Daily News and even a Spartanburg paper about the Harlem riots. There seems to be plenty of excitement in New York.
As far as the Daily News goes, it's the only New York paper that could be gotten and I read ^{something} it ^{when time permits} after the other fellows buy it.

Did Haniel come in on Sunday?

Haven't heard in Aaron in a long time. He must be quit busy.

I hear from Sam very often. His letters only take one day to travel. He seems to be doing fine only having a tough time. As I told you he's getting 13 weeks of Infantry basic training.

The table I'm writing on seems to be moving from one side to another. That's why the handwriting is so uneven.

may be able to send you some pictures of myself tomorrow. My buddy is seeing his wife tonight and I understand that she wants to get deprints. So if they are ready I'll mail them to you tomorrow O.K.

That's all I have for today dear. Closing with all my love and kisses.
