CAMP CROFT
SOUTH CAROLINA

August 5, 1943

My Deary Beloved Darling,

This morning I have the whole morning off. It ~~se~~ sure feels good just be lounging around for a week day morning. I have until 12:30 o'clock when my just afternoon ~~so~~ class starts.

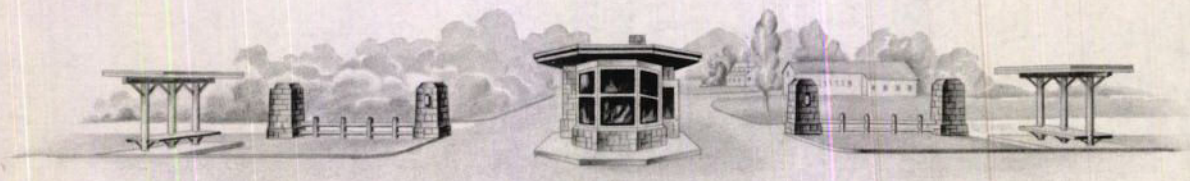

I think that the three week manuever I told you about is false because the manuever I'll be going on it is different than the actual manuevers they have in divisions. This camp is only a training center. For the possible six days I'll be on the field I'll have to same ~~be~~ type of problems we now have every day.

The idea behind it is to give our 2
a little experience with maintaining wire communication for long distances. Now, we only go a short distance because we have to be back for chow.

Last night I was on a 15 mile hike and I believe that, that's the last hike at this camp.

One more week of specialized training then the maneuvers. Before I'll realize it I'll be on my maneuver
than I'll be back then, I hope,
hope and hope.

It's now around 9:30. I took for the first time in a long while I went to the G.O. movie. I saw an excellent picture "Pilot #5" besides that there was a short picture
named "This Is America" on "Broadway Dinner Out". The picture was all about Times Square and the entertainment surrounding the area.
Shots from the Hurricane and Rogers' Corner reminded me of the time we were there. Do you remember.

Darling I'd take your suggestion and see "Du Barry Was a Lady" if I get the opportunity. The picture was scheduled for this week but for some unknown reason its not going to play.

Sweetest you dont have to think for one minute that I'm not thinking of you. The song do I "Do I Love you" (Whisperly, I do) wont make me think of you because you are always in my mind. The picture about Broadway made me think of all the times and was Saturday evening in the Times Square area.
