

FROM Pat Ben Segan 32898252

Free

APO 15018

Postmaster New York, NY

Miss Judith Berman
817 West End Ave.
New York # 25
NY,

Censored
3/23/54

114

1

Easter Greetings

Tuesday 5, 1943

My Very Dear Judy,

I now have to recopy the letter I wrote you yesterday because I wrote on both sides of the paper and therefore the censor won't except the letter.

I arrived in camp yesterday and after I had chow I went to the Service Club to write you the letter that was returned to me.

Dearest, from now on my mail will be censored since I'm at a P.O.E., so therefore,

Easter Greetings

I won't be able to inform you of the questions you have on your mind.

Please don't let yourself get upset over the fact that I'll be going overseas. You no sweetheart, I told you repeatedly that I expected to go overseas. I realize that you will worry until the day I come home, but please don't let yourself get sick like you did when I ~~was~~ mentioned to you, that I might go across.

Easter Greetings

I realize how you must feel sweets, but there isn't any thing you could do so don't worry as I feel every thing will be turn out O.K.

It sure makes me feel good when I think I've been with you most of last month. I don't no what I would have done if the army didn't give me a furlough.

I'll miss seeing you soon, so just as you possible will miss me because I've ~~missed~~ missed you ~~be~~ from

Easter Greetings

4

The just day I left you but adaring me both will have to make the best of the situation and hope and pray that it won't be long before we will be seeing each other again.

The train trip was nice but instead of the train going in the direction I expected it to it went just in the opposite direction.

I got you a little gift just before I left my other camp because it may be for some time

