POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT PERMIT NO. 28

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two panels provided. Addresses to members of the Armed Forces should include rank or rating of the addressee, unit to which attached, and APO or Naval address.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope and a separate V-Mail letter must be sent if you desire to write more than one sheet.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if air mail is desired).

INSTRUCTIONS

V-Mail Service provides the most expeditious dispatch and reduces the weight of mail to and from personnel of our Armed Forces outside the continental United States. When addressed to points where micro-film equipment is operated, a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the most expeditious transportation available for reproduction and delivery. The original message will be destroyed after the reproduction has been delivered. Messages addressed to or from points where micro-film equipment is not operated will be transmitted in their original form by the most expeditious means available.

Dearest Sweetheart,

Today I sent you a cablegram which you should have received by this time. There are only a selection of phrases that I could send to you. There isn't much of a variety to choose from but I feel that I picked the best three groups. The cost is reasonable, only sixty / 60¢ kents. Planning on sending you a cablegram at least once a month and if possible more often.

I wrote you a letter yesterday darling, but you won't receive it so soon. When you receive it if you do, you will know why.

Hope you aren't worrying now as much as you probably was when you learned that I was going overseas. I say that because there isn't any need to worry. Everything here is similar to the states except that I'm not near you, but as far as training goes I'll receive additional training over here. I have to receive advanced training which will take from [redacted] months. So dearest please keep your chin up and who can tell me never no what's going to happen tomorrow.

How many days does it take to receive my cablegram. I sent it today 10/27/43

I was just thinking I should have sent it tomorrow as it will be one month since we were together, gosh, it seems much longer. That's all beautiful,
All my love & kisses

Ben
