

Ben Segon
498282
- 33 Regl. En.
Regl. Depot
APO 398
To Post. N.Y. N.Y.

U.S. ARMY POSTAL SERVICE
398
NOV
123
1943
A. P. O.

Miss Judith Berman
817 West End Ave.
New York, # 25
N.Y.

PASSED BY U.S. AIR MAIL
APR 21 1943
9/14/43

140

Saturday
Nov 13, 1943 ¹

My Dearest Beloved Judy,

Another Saturday is here, and if it wasn't for the memories of Saturdays that I spent with you, I would only see this day as another day in the week. Over here it's just a routine day.

This day as well as the time right now (8PM) always has my mind thinking of myself, hopping on the subway on my way down to your house to spend a enjoyable evening with you. ^{sure} It's good to be thinking of those days to come again, I hope, sooner than soon.

I mailed you a weekly copy of the Stars and Stripes in a regular (free) envelope today!

Figured that you might like to look over the Army newspaper that we receive here in North Africa. There isn't any thing special that I want ~~you~~ you to read. If there appears a article that I would like you to read than I'll cut out the clipping and enclose it in the letter you possible will receive the paper in about a week or two.

Sweetheart I haven't forgotten the letter I wrote you on the boat about getting married as soon as I return home. I still feel that way about it even though I realize that before we take that step there will be many things we may want to talk over. Referring to a home, support and everything else for the planning of a happy home. It would be silly to plan that now as we don't know what lies ahead. At least I'm hoping that every thing turns out where we will be able to, many as soon as possible.

 Agree?

The fellows from my gauge back at Camp Luft that came into my other camp ~~over~~ overseas about a week after I did, are now, ~~that~~ at different replacement camp located near my camp.

It's a little early to say good night to you, but you know I'm a little tired, as usual, so dearest as I hold you close to me, and kiss you I'll whisper in your EAR - those lovely words of I deeply love you as always. Yes, I can hear you repeating the word like a echo. Good night sweetheart. Ben KISS KISS KISS KISS KISS KISS KISS KISS