There's a cable service For every need

At New York, Western Union observes and reports incoming steamers and will notify you in time to meet your friends, thus saving long waits at the dock. Order this service at any Western Union office.

Registered Code Addresses cost little, obviate necessity for full address in cablegrams and result in great economy. Registration may be arranged at your nearest Western Union office. At New York through The Central Bureau for Registered Addresses, 50 Broad St.

NEWS FROM HOME

Cable Letters (NLT) keep the traveler in close contact with home and office at economical cost and dispel that "far away" feeling. Arrange before you start for daily or weekly exchanges of news from home.
