My Dearest & loved Judy,

I'm now on duty but in a hour I'll be relieved. Tonight for the first time there's a rumor about a movie being shown in a near by building. I'm unable to go today because I'll now on duty but if true I guess there will be some shows so I'll have a opportunity to see a movie picture also.

I've been reading in yesterday's Stars and Stripes about Eisenhower's statement of the Near European war ending in 1944. He seems to be pretty sure of himself and I'm in agreement with him.

There won't be much of a New Year's for me this year but I'm looking forward to the following year when I hope I'll be able to do what I've done the previous year mainly, be with you darling.

In a few minutes the 10M news goes on so I'll have to start connecting everybody with a telephone in on it. Every night I listen for that all important news and one of these days I'll be bound to hear it. I'll bet that the day I'm not listening to the news the greatest news will come over the air waves.

I intend to be there news but here wasn't anything unusual. The Russians seem to have the highlight with their great offensive.

She follows just one back from the show and I see where I didn't miss much because the picture was "Star Spangled Banners".

That's about all so I'll sign off with all my love sweetheart

Pat
