My Dearest Beloved Judy,
Wrote you a nice ten page letter yesterday which I hoped you received shortly. In way, mainly in reply to the few letters I received from you. Another Saturday is here, and all I have to look forward to at 8 PM is going on duty for the evening. But the best part about it is the memories of the past with you at chatline.

Instead of being bags about the nice room my friend Eric I have, we invited two other fellows to share the room with us. Now it's nice and comfortable and it's better all around that we are four in the room. One of the new boys coming in with us works in the kitchen so the food problem we greatly be solved.

you probably don't understand the above but when you receive yesterday's letter it will be much clearer to you.

As you would wish me to be down on Sunday, and so as we look each other in the face Dan, I'll hold you close to me embracing in your lovely ear those sweet words of sincerest I'm very deeply in love with you as I love you as always and will continue to feel that way, yes I can hear the echo.

When I return I'm now looking forward to me having to you each me to the down and your mother embracing of the time. All my love honey and mother's kisses, Dan Knight - KOS
