

WAR & NAVY
DEPARTMENTS
V-MAIL SERVICE

OFFICIAL BUSINESS

PENALTY FOR PRIVATE USE TO AVOID
PAYMENT OF POSTAGE, $300

245

V...MAIL

Post heart
 Just with 3 with you that I was going to and you some pictures of St. John's his when I am not I haven't seen the book ground of the picture and I cut out the country and I liked 3rd holding looking for another approach. I like that some making may be changed
 This man's in our animal the book 3rd for breakfast in milk, like a buttery stick. What about the second time in several fresh eggs in the world
 and they contain, that better than those growing eggs and of the world and parts, some man in long the night becoming very poor, up right the
 when they he want to change, because he says even. Another's him, the other's asked him how he was, get out the army and move how he will manage. I got answers: some, gun in the park
 the letter now. The letter can't see any thing good at this point so that give you and idea of this her had his eye on.
 and we got a new operator, it means that
 I'll send him to put in man know on the south end,
 I can't see the same schedule as we had when
 me of see so when looking that the day not.
 No mail from you today, but hoping for tomorrow
 send next and please miss you thinking and of my love, looking - Don

Please the complete address in plain block letters in the post box, and your return address in the space provided. Use typewriter, dark ink, or pencil. Write plainly. Very small writing is not suitable.

To Miss Judith Bowman
 171 West End Ave
 New York 28
 N.Y.
 NY 10036

3255212
 [Sender's name]
 Ed. G. [unclear]
 42 Gates - 97 West 24
 [Sender's address]
 New York 28, N.Y. 10036
 2nd day
 March 9, 1909