My Dearest Sweetheart,

Before I leave for the rest center today I figured I better write you as just as last time. The mail down at the rest center is delayed, because there aren't regular censors.

Today down at the rest center, will probably be just like the last time, when I'll be assigned to a bunk, be issued new clothing, and a nice hot shower that will cover the whole afternoon. During the evening, I expect there will be some type of entertainment. Probably a movie.

How many of your girl friends are sharing the room with you at Long Beach? I believe I asked you but how come your other girl friends don't intend going to the wash this year. Have they better plans?

Working another Saturday is around, and we are as far apart in distance, as I hope we ever will be, but in my heart and mind you are just as close as you ever always have been and will be in the future.

The time is drawing so near for the vehicle to go to the rest center, therefore, please hold your fast, and whisper those sweet words of I love you deeply and yes, I can hear the echo.

All my love & kisses

Ben
