My dearest Judy,
Last night's cheer was a fine U.S.O. show, similar to the rest of them but each U.S.O. has its different jokes and acts. The movie which followed was "No Time for Love" and I suppose you saw it.

Tonight the first stage play is being presented here. It formally played in New York being a third rate production, but over here we can't be so choosy closely and since it's been quite a time that I haven't seen a stage play I probably will enjoy "Out of the Trying Pan". There is also a movie named "We the People".

You probably are wondering what else is there to do except to see movie after movie, but the curfew is at 7:30 PM but more so, there isn't anything doing outside of this area, unless I know how to speak Italian good but who wants to becker with this, a half can understand business, and the using of the sign language.

The Red Cross has one improvement since the last time I was here, after the evening show, they serve sandwiches and coffee.

all my love's
Ben
