Dearst Judy

Good morning. Honey I'm now 9 AM and to start the day off right I decided to write you about my day yesterday and plans for today.

Knocked my self silly yesterday playing badminton for the first time in a extra long time, but I enjoyed it. Another sport, that I was playing where I didn't have to use so much energy was ping pong.

After supper show I was the "music" met the People's show for the first time since coming overseas I was the play out of the "Frying Pan" the lady actress was sponsored by the S.O. and the males were S.O. but they were very good. Surprising me were even given a program of the show and I intend making it to you in the next letter.

I have a letter idea (I think) of just how you feel walking along the street or wherever you may be and seeing young couples enjoying themselves, cause missing the home parts of the play, what same feeling run right through my body.

This afternoon I hope to see the show "This is the Army" playing in the next city.

Been looking around for something to buy my mother for Mother's Day but was unsuccessful today. regardless I'll buy some thing.

Someday I'll be writing you from camp. Love, all my
Ben
