Just day

April 25, 1944

(Date)

My dearest Judy,

A air mail letter dated April 20th and a v mail dated three days later arrived today.

It was so good to hear that you were over my house on Saturday evening and had a nice dinner.

Just as I thought she would, came on Saturday. I was under the impression that I previously brought you such a flower but possible it was a invitation.

Since you want a request I'm not going to argue with you. I'm requesting any thing you desire to send me, because I know whether you send it will be tops. How is that darling?

Perhaps I forgot to mention to you just how glad I was to hear that my family was down to your house for dinner but anyway dear you now know I was.

Nice that you sent down a birthday card. Had I think of it at the correct time I probably would have sent him a cable but darling your card should be and it is just as good. At least it shows that we pardon me but I mean you thought of his birthday.

Yes the German's broadcast in English for propaganda and it's very interesting to listen to their line of talk. It just a matter of propegranda news counter propegranda.

Closing now, I love you with all my heart.
Good night KWS
Josephine Ben
