SEE INSTRUCTION NO. 2

My beloved Judy

Today is a day of rain and when it rains it pours which holds true at present. It been raining all day today which after a long spell of dryness, its to be expected. As you have written April shows brings many flowers, but oh how I wish it would bring me something else, referring to you darling.

Two I mail letters was in today's mail from you, which I just pleased to receive.

You seeing the show "Chicken Every Sunday" remains me that earlier in the day I noticed a book by that name in our library, and upon your recommendation I think I'll shall read it.

Yes dear it certainly is nice to dream of seeing me shortly but possible some day I'll be able to surprise you like Horie is trying to do to Sylvia. I figured under the rotation plan I can expect to be home in about ten years. therefore I'll have to keep wishing that something else develops by then. The percentage on the rotation plan is one half of one percent per month therefore you can figure out for yourself the changes.

I miss you terribly and love you ever so much with my love and handful of kisses
Your Sam
