Hello Sweetheart

Another package and arrived today along with one of your Saturday air mail letter written April 25th.

There isn't anything to answer to your letter as I received many later letters which I have answered to your questions or remarks.

I am reading the book "Chicken Every Sunday" and I'm finding it very enjoy able, with a fine sense of humor.

As far as that picture you send to my brother in law Jack I believe I could have told you that you would have to wait a long time before the picture would be returned, because whenever he goes any photographer work you can expect it back the following year any way darling I'd like to see you get it back soon.

How is your job? I didn't ask, or get a raise in pay yet?

Today I did a ~~small~~ practice in driving with a vehicle that's the next larger size to the jeep. I remained in the area, going back and forth, stopping and starting. To go out on the main road, requires a trip ticket which I'm unable to obtain cheap. I have to be content to drive in the small area I'm located.

Mountains of love and a kiss for every peck.

V-MAIL

I love you darling,
 Ben
