My Dearest Judy,

Received some bad news from Julie in that Sam and Hys father passed away the very same day that Hys first cartoon was published. You possibly might know of the news already by meeting some one from uptown or Frank Bernstein who wrote me saying that he has met you a few times downtown as he works near your office. Does Frank still come around with him that extra pangs pounds.

From when I'm now sitting I can just look across and see you at the other end looking over and gee that bird just smacked me right on my lips. You should be getting mine shortly.

Gave my dirty cloths to one of the peasants in the area to be washed and you know, like you see in the movies some times I gave myself a nice washing in a nearby brook. The water was ice but it felt good.

No mail from you today dear but its to be expected.

Take care of yourself, keep his well and I'm in the best of health, and getting a nice sun tan.

All my loves kisses
Ben
