my dearest Judy,

Today I consider I had one of the best meals, on this side of the ocean. Steak directly off the grill, and to top it off we had delicious ice cream, as well as very tasty cake. Would like to have many more of the same kind of meals but until I return home, I can expect such a similar meal perhaps once a month.

Unable to give you any information in the progress that I'm making in buying a suit to my outfit, but eventually I'll be able and I'll inform you the day that I do. Actually a very stupid thing is being done in my case in getting a back to my unit. Someday I'll be able to tell you about it but now you will just have to be patient. That's part of the Army, the remembering those few days that are done. Sweated it out this long time while longer won't matter much.

Having some hot weather these days, clothing now cheap, with cream of home and a kiss for every wave, yours forever Ben
