SEE INSTRUCTION NO. 2

Hello my Darling,

Another day of swimming and the water was extremely warm probably because of air was cool.

Last night I saw another entertaining picture named "This is Life" shots the second picture in consecutive rows that didn't pretend to be war and I'm glad of it because as it is I've seen enough of it. Tonight I'll be going again to the show, well as yet I don't know what's playing.

Received one mail letter from you dearest dated July 25. I will be careful in the future as to my selection of fruits from the trees. In fact I think the best idea is just not to eat any of them except if they are exceedingly good and ripe.

A package from home in which I requested mustard arrived. It greatly helps in seasoning the food and tastes much better.

The more accustomed I am to the pen the more I like it and it feels as if its helping me slightly to improve my command.

A request would like to have a pocket dictionary so I'll be able to correct the words I know I misspell also to increase my vocabulary. There is a dictionary published in the pocket books and if possible that would be a smaller size dictionary.
