SEE INSTRUCTION NO. 2

My dearest Judy,

Another day in which I went swimming and last night I went to the movies to see "It Happened Tomorrow" which was awfully able. Read and finished one of the recent books sent me by my Uncle called "Trouble In July" written by G. E. Caldwell the same author as "Johnny Road" and the story was similar in that it involved a negro and white problem. Now process your book Valley for Decision and will attempt to finish it starting tomorrow.

Just was reading in the Stars and Stripes about a lady that won the prettiest sweetheart of a serviceman, naturally if you were present you could be able to give her plenty of competition. What interest we was her comments on helping other servicemen's sweethearts. Her hints in my opinion are typical in that most girls feel the same way. Here they are if you haven't already read the article. It isn't necessary to remain dateless or kiss less. Write daily to your boyfriend but DON'T tell him about your date. Remain faithful of course. Sweethearts of course should feel their time should divert the mind from as country work. What did like your's comment is that I definitely don't like her comment of my catalytic word and please proceed it. No mail from me today darling! All my love's
Jennifer
