My Dearest Judy,

This wasn't any mail from you today dear but just writing you yesterday about not hearing from Julie W. I got a letter today I received a letter from you him, he is still in England but as he writes me in a previous letter he expects to be very busy but now it has slackened. Probably is was for the insurance.

Pie believes that Stanley (the Polish fellow) is now in France. It's a mysterious statement.

Saw the movie picture 'Pie Up Side' last night and before the show we were entertained by a good collection. Have you ever heard the song 'Via Roma'? It was written by one of the 3's our best and very popular among us because the lyrics is marvelous.

Finally was determined to finish your book and took the one hour required to do so. Now can say that Valley for Decision is the longest book I have held my interest throughout because the story was exciting, true to life and enjoyable. Thanks one as aim for sending it to me as its one of the best I read. With love and always
