Hello Sweetheart,

Remember my letter describing the excitement of a football game and tactics of war operations. What a darling, the touchdown play is now in motion, (in my opinion) with the announcement of the invasion of Southern France. Were you stilled by the news? Did you anticipate such a move at this time? Our ears have been clinging to the radio for further details of the latest operations but thus far the reports are brief.

The afternoon we had a beach party without women and besides beer we helped ourselves to delicious sandwiches consisting of a choice and variety of hot dogs, American cheese, relish, mustard, pickles, mustard lettuce and tomatoes. These sandwiches were really tasty. I limited myself to three cans of beer which is the most I ever consumed. The beer filled my stomach therefore I could not eat only two sandwiches.

Received your mail letter of Aug 6 & today.

I had read that because I'd be over soon I'd did today instead of going to the beach this evening. I'm organizing to bed early. all my love
Judith
