V-Mail service provides a most rapid means of communication. If addressed to a place where photographing service is not available the original letter will be dispatched by the most expeditious means.

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) Print the name and address in the two spaces provided. Addresses of members of the Armed Forces should show full name, complete military or naval address, including grade or rank, serial number, unit to which assigned or attached and army post office in care of the appropriate postmaster or appropriate fleet post office.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if domestic air mail service is desired when mailed in the U. S.)

AND SEAL

Print the complete address in plain letters in the panel below, and your return address in the space provided on the right. Use typewriter, dark ink, or dark pencil. Faint or small writing is not suitable for photographing.

my Dearest Judy,

In one of my letters of a week or so ago I wrote saying I'd have some surprising or possible startling news for you. What I anticipated and was told did not materialize with me even though on other sectors of the other allied armies it has developed. Don't permit the above statement to puzzle you because now which the news will be good it won't be surprising since you know eventually I'll be there.

Waiting impatiently for your package containing the bracelet — oh, I mean the second birthday gift you sent me, I do hope it doesn't get lost in the mail, but since I receive packages in the past few and five months after they were mailed I won't worry yet.

It's another rainy day which doesn't help the situation.

No mail today honey,

I love you very much and miss you very much
