(1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
(2) PRINT the name and address in the two panels provided. Addresses to members of the Armed Forces should include rank or rating of the addressee, unit to which attached, and APO or Naval address.
(3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post-office letter drop or street letter box.
(4) Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope and a separate V-Mail letter must be sent if you desire to write more than one sheet.
(5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others, postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if air mail is desired).

INSTRUCTIONS

V-Mail Service provides the most expeditious dispatch and reduces the weight of mail to and from personnel of our Armed Forces outside the continental United States. When addressed to points where micro-film equipment is operated, a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the most expeditious transportation available for reproduction and delivery. The original message will be destroyed after the reproduction has been delivered. Messages addressed to or from points where micro-film equipment is not operated will be transmitted in their original form by the most expeditious means available.

Just my Darling,

Instead of love, love, love it's rain rain rain over in these parts but between us my heart goes out the furthest.

You can just about imagine how this terrible weather during the past week has hampered our progress, I feel burnt up because it means going to prolong that touch-down.

Back to V mail since a new supply of the stationery arrived today, but I intend to use more of the regular stationery, since I prefer receive that type and I'm be pleasing you. If you observed later I have been carrying out my plan.

Three more V-mail letters came from you today dated Aug. 16th 17th and 18th.

Can you believe it another package came from home today that was forwarded to the hospital. The mail clerk didn't exaggerate in saying when I returned from the hospital that I received twelve (12) packages, because I gotten approximately that number, returned from the hospital I love you darling forever and ever
