Hells Sweetheart,

I delighted to received two more mail letters from you after not hearing from you for a few days. They were dated Sept 11 and 15 and I see you still haven't heard from me at that time since I left Italy.

apparently I did write my brother that if I had the chance I'll write you first. I see now where it was a ridiculous statement to write because having the time to write you I certainly could spare another few minutes to write mother. I don't believe that even writing that statement to him and his telling mother, isn't as terrible as you are inclined to think because mother knows I write you daily, when possible.

I've heard of a slight earthquake occurring in New York but the hurricane is new to me, see but I'm glad that you weren't at Long Beach at the time. are shoes still rationed?

I love you dearly and miss you constantly to.

Forever yours,
Ben
