My Dearest Judy,

Received two more letters from you today one v mail dated Sept 24th and a air mail of Sept 4, Labor Day.

I delighted to read your small paragraph on ~~important~~ time doesn't change many important things especially the one big thing I'm concerned about because, it's been so long since we have been together I was wondering what the score was. Now that you have written it I'm no longer in doubt.

Forgot to mention the fact that I finally was paid the other day and as soon as I can obtain a money order I intend sending home a small amount of the money I received.

Yesterday was a lovely day, clear and warm and I figured we would have a few more days of the same weather but again today its cloudy.

Started reading the novel "The Human Comedy" which I obtained from one of the other fellows.

all my love darling
as always,
Ben
