What do you mean, "have you cut God" (you meaning me) 4

I know, feel and am convinced that our love is true, as today is Saturday and that while either of us might love some else in the future, it could never be as deep as we are in love with each other.

I'm not doubtful of your feelings nor am I in the slightest of my own for you.

The lovely part of your letter that completely answered my doubts was the part that starts off "I did think you know" -- goes on about the waiting for me and so on until the end of the letter you thought incidentally as I never was positive but you presented it to me very clearly and with plenty of force behind your statements.

Darling aside from my other ambitions, the most important one is to really make you happy, so you won't ever regret the decision you have made now in waiting for my return. I want our marriage to be better than <sup>best</sup> and I'm sure the aim will be achieved because love few more than any one else <sup>can</sup>

Saturday
Oct 21, 1944

My Beloved Sweetheart,

I couldn't ask for a better day in receiving letters from you dear as I received two wonderful air mail letters from you dated Oct 7th and 10th plus your special letter which you claim you had to use special stationery you say Howie is in Sherbough, are you sure you don't mean the seagort of Cherbourg? If the latter is correct than I doubt if I'll be able to contact him.

Possibly I overrated the novel
"The Prodigal Women" as I only read a few chapters when I gave you the report but it wasn't bad reading. Have you read the book yet? What is your opinion of the book dead.

Robert isn't Jewish and I can not give you a definite now for your delectable letter <sup>3</sup> which you had to use to special stationary to answer the main question which wasn't the major point of the letter I sent you.

The letter I wrote wasn't because I wanted you to convince me of your feelings or I doubted your feelings as I believe I clearly stated in the letter but rather to relate to you the burden I felt I might be imposing on you by having you wait,

I can not say I felt good in receiving this special letter of Oct 9th because I know the only reason for you writing such a letter is due to my influence in pressing the questions. You either intepred the letter incorrectly unless unless I'm to blame by my poor writing on the subject. Nevertheless darling I was exceedingly delighted in the paragraph of <sup>the</sup> letter in which you answered my question and I won't ask you the question again as I know you will write me if any of your ideas change.

reason on why he isn't in <sup>3</sup> the army because I renewed him as I figured it wasn't my business this is what I think on the topic. As far as I know the regular French army is composed of men who were in North Africa He wasn't in the army in 1940 because of his age.

I was unable to keep my appointment with Robert today because of the present situation.
It's definite that I won't be able to visit them as often as I have in the past, and possibly I won't be seeing them again for some time. Now darling I'm about twelve miles from his house so you see the transportation problem becomes more complicated.

It was careless of you of his ing<sup>me</sup> while you have your cold because I already caught it.
But I can say that it's practically disappeared now. How is yours?
Hope you are okay?
