My Beloved Judy,

I doubt very much now if I'll be returning to Robert's house because I'm so far away and the transportation problem becomes more difficult.

Refused a three day pass to the rest center today because they really isn't any thing to do there and possibly I'll be able to go around Christmas time. The reason why I want to go there is because the rest center isn't so far from Robert's house and when Robert will be home. Possible I will go on the next shuffle to the rest center because around Christmas time, if all goes well, the rest center will be moved forward and we continue to progress throughout the winter. That's why I'm giving it a second thought.

I haven't any mail from you today, don't but I'll be hoping for a letter tomorrow.

We have been eating good lately since we bought a cow, and enjoying plenty of steaks from it after this meat is finished the boys will take the country side to try and buy another one from a farmer all gas shipping for the cost.

I love you sweetheart
