Halls My Love,

For this time of the season the weather is very warm. I anticipated, but it would be much cooler. I will now that I mentioned it, in a few days I'll be writing you of a change in weather.

Read about half the novel of "The Cross and the Arrow" and I immensely enjoy reading the book. The story is very vivid and reminds me of your favorite song, "As Thing Go By" in relationship to women needing man and vice versa.

In my present position I'm located in a nice cozy room, with a stove burning twenty four hours a day to keep us warm. I'm spending the day with every one adding a few pieces of wood now and then, thinking the fire is going out but I'm overcasted. We have a window unit keep it closed, cause then it would be too cold.

I love you very much darling, your forever
