My Dearest Judy,

I believe you once wrote me about a new song you been hearing and liked '921 We Sing for... Right now I'm hearing that song over the radio, and which made me think of it.

Since I came down here I've heard that song a few times, and took a liking to it when I first heard it. The words really are perfect and very true.

Tuesday was sought of a full day and this afternoon I went to the theater to see a hand concert followed by the motion picture, 'Marriage Is a Private Affair' with Lana Turner. I enjoyed the picture.

In the first time since down here we had mail call but there wasn't any letters for me. Nobody from my former outfit who is down here will be receiving any mail. Therefore it must be delayed at the same time.
