My Dearest Judy,

The weather is very cold today and that extra sweater should give help in keeping me warm. The coldest time is when I have to get up in the morning, I just hate to uncurl from my warm sleeping bag. My present quarters is in a building but there isn't no type of heat.

I'm writing you again from the ARL room where it's warm and a radio is playing. At 6 o'clock I'll attend the show tonight which consists of a movie, "Gardles Change" followed by a orchestra that will heat out some good music, (Shape)

There is also a Red Cross snack bar here serving coffee and cake. During the evening it's good to be able to get that.

Okay darling I'm now going to the show. Well is okay and I'm hope you are well.

All my love
Sam
