My Dearest Judy,

Friday
Jan 19, 1945

Mail came through today dear for I received two mail letters from you dated Dec 28th and 29th.

I glad you received the handy and liked it as a souvenir. That's all I was intended for.

If I remember correctly when I first read the first few pages of "Cross and Lovers" I didn't enjoy the novel but as I continued I became more interested in the book.

Today we are having a snow storm. It's been snowing all day.

I received my first V mail letter of the new year from Mom dated Jan 1. I guess I'll be getting your letters shortly.

Going to sleep early this evening instead of going to the movies.

Good night darling and pleasant dreams.
All my loves kisses
