My Dearest Judy,

Sunday
Jan 14, 1945

Another Sunday is here which to me now means a day of rest, as we don't have to go out for any training. I also took advantage of the day by sleeping late.

Went to the afternoon work concert followed by a movie picture which I didn't stay to see the end. The picture didn't interest me.

Again I'm at the ARL, ~~where~~ I seem to make my daily visit to do my writing.

The weather has been much warmer today than it was for over ten weeks. Darling, now that I haven't got you near me to help so keep me warm, someone should invent suitable heated for us soldiers to carry around in our pockets. Natural it's not a very good substitute, but it would help.

So long until tomorrow dearst All my love
