My Dearest Judy,

I received a few hour pass to visit the nearby town today. I haven't enough time to attempt and go and visit the Sachs then for my buddy and I walk around the town. The only busy place was a cafe having only beer to drink. There was a four piece orchestra playing popular American music. We stayed there awhile and then left.

Came back to camp and when to the snack bar for coffee and cake. Since there wasn't a long line we when through three times to get extra portions of on the cake.

Continuing to snow and now I believe this is the most snow I've seen to in one month. There is about seven feet of snow on the ground and there doesn't appear as if there will be a let up for another month or two.

No mail again darling Goodnight and all my love and kisses James
