AMERICAN RED CROSS

Saturday
Jan 20th, 1945

My Beloved Sweetheart,

Another Saturday is here dear and it turned out to be a brighter one than a few that have passed for I received your Christmas Day letter and another air mail letter dated two days later.

Also, I went to the theatre to see, guess what — "Du Barry Was a Lady" and I heard one of your favorite songs, "Do I Love You Do I" yes I did see the picture before but it was worthwhile seeing it once again. It reminded me of the time we saw the stage show.

Darling when I mentioned to you about passes being issued to Paris I didn't mean that I intended going at that time. Any way now clear it out of the question as I have no hopes of being able to visit the capital of France. What do you doubt about Paris?

Guess you aren't having any snow now as we are getting it all here now.

Better not eat to many sweets darling, if your tooth aches, and mainly because you are sweet enough.

I won't go into details over the family when I ate rabbit for the first time as I must have written it to you before. Eating the rabbit didn't remind me of any thing in particular, just another piece of meat which I wouldn't have known it was rabbit, if I wasn't told.

Tomorrow being Sunday, I'll have the day off, I hope, if nothing happens. Right now there is a fifty-fifty chance of some thing occurring tomorrow whereby if it does I probably won't have much of any time for writing you a letter. I believe by now, you should know exactly what I mean. Well we shall see in about twelve hours from now.

The ARC is getting ready to close for the evening clear, therefore I better sign off while I still have light to do so.

Good night darling and remember I love you now, as I did in the past and I will in the future. I immensely miss you and want you close to me so I can better express my deep feelings for you dearest.

Sleep well and pleasant dreams.

I am

Forever yours,
Ben
