Hello My Darling,

Friday
Jan 26, 1945

This evening I saw a excellent movie, "Gas light" with Charles Boyer. The motion picture I believe I suppose to be the same as the stage play "Angels Street" which I never had any desire to see because I thought I wouldn't enjoy it. Have you seen the motion picture "Gas light"?

In the first time since I'm in the army I have a slight trouble with my teeth. All it is, is a filling came out from one of the canines. When the Dentist for an appointment, to have the tooth refilled. I have to report back Sunday.

One of my uncles here remind me of how I used to feel a few months ago in which it wasn't be long now. That's what he repeatedly tells me to due to the light of our own advances and our own good progress. No doubt the picture on the European theatre of operations looks good but I'm figuring it to last a long time yet, because I'm here. All my love
