AMERICAN RED CROSS

Saturday
Jan 13, 1945

My Dearly Beloved Judy,

Today I had my best mail call day since I arrived here. I certainly needed something to cheer me up and your lovely letters has helped tremendously.

A total of five letters from you today dear. Three V mail dated Dec 21st 22nd and 24th, and two air mail, one being the fancy stationary dated Dec 16th and the other dated Dec 18th. Gee but I really was overjoyed to receive all those letters from you.

In your letters and the ones received from Mom and Mike, the main complaint, is no mail from me or the letters are taking a long time to arrive.

 I know how you must feel because I'm going through the same misfortunate situation.
 I'm sure the cause is neither of our faults darling.

I can't understand the question
 mark or better to your reason for asking the question, "could they
 be right" in referring to the letter
 you showed Baby and Mike and they remarked, "most likely its a sample letter that I wrote you so you could show it to them" I believe you should know if its a sample letter of what I've been writing you. I'm trying to think honey but actually I don't see the point. Possible its something in that letter that I don't remember exactly what I wrote
 that made them make the statement

Could you enlighten me a little better on that letter? Its puzzling me now.

I can't figure it out but I could swear that you wrote me about two months ago that Zelda got engaged and now you say the same thing. Possible it was in that earlier letter that she was getting engaged. The reason why I remember it so clearly is because I made a remark about it which you didn't understand? or have

So Miss darling, I still haven't received any of your winter pictures. you wrote me about taking pictures on Thanksgiving and you wanting to show me how you look in your new fur coat but sweet, I'm still waiting impatiently for those pictures.

Charlotta was correct in thinking that Julie is in Holland, as I received another letter from him today, and that's where he is. He also informed me that Sam Schechter is in the same army as I am in. ~~and~~ There is a possibility of me of joining Sam's divisions. Time will tell.

Mike informed me quite a long time ago that they were looking for a new apartment, but were unsuccessful in finding any decent apartment due to the acute housing shortage.

From Mom's letter I now know that I now have another nephew, gee, no nieces, yet. I haven't heard from Frieda for a long time and now I understand the reason. I think I'll write them a letter this evening.
