My Beloved Judy,

There wasn't any letters from you Tuesday dear but since I realize some days must pass without me getting a letter from you I'm satisfied since your mail has been coming in grand up until today.

Just another routine day today, except that I was able to obtain some potatoes from a nearby house. Bought the potatoes back, had them peeled and we washed for ourselves some delicious french fried potatoes. The grease was utilized from the kitchen. I'll have to get new potatoes so we can have that dish more often. I use the water system which is much better than coal. I give the civilian either cigarettes or some soap, both of which is in great demand. all they are taking it easy.
