Hello My Love,

Wednesday
Feb 21, 1945

Today I received two more letters from you, one a air mail dated Jan 4th and the other a U mail dated Jan 21st.

Yes your guess was correct in that I changed times in the latter part of December but none of your guesses were correct, as then my former outfit was called upon to ~~assist~~ help out the [redacted] I can write directly, telling you of it because it occurred so long ago. The ruling is that two weeks must elapse, then I can write of my experience.

Don't believe those stories about fellows that never drank before coming overseas's now drinking like fish out of water because it isn't true in a majority of cases: its just like everything else, because of possible a few exceptions, people get the impression its true with everybody. Darling it isn't so. You needed many darlings about me smoking, smoking or drinking because I'm not. Some day soon I hope you will be able to see that for yourself.
