My Dearest Judy,

The last day of the month and I was paid for this and last month. I wasn't paid the extra ten dollars this month because the order didn't go through until the 24th of the month which isn't ample time to be figured in this month's pay. I expect I'll get it which next month's pay. Before I have a chance to gamble the money away I gave the mail clerk forty dollars for a money order which I'll send home for a few days. I still have the money order mom sent me in case I should be needing money which is unlikely.

Thus far this has been a poor week of receiving mail as I haven't received any from you dear. Hope the new month starts off right.

What do you think of the midnight curfew on night clubs? I don't think it's such a good idea especially for the swing shift workers and the small percentage of servicemen that are returning home on rotation.

Still releasing darling which is surprising me, but I won't complain. All my love
Ben Segon
