My Beloved Judy,

Believe that I have a few minutes to dash off a letter to you and hope I'll be able to get it censored. I didn't receive any more letters from you honey but I'm not going to complain because I realize the circumstances and know that even you haven't been hearing from me regularly.

Naturally I would be more pepped up if I did get one or more sweet letters from you. But I know you won't disappoint me and that one of these days I will receive many letters from you.

Actually sweetheart there isn't much to say, as what the newspapers don't mention I myself can't write about.

Just been informed that I better cut this letter short dearest, now doubt if I'll be able to mail this letter now but I will at my first opportunity. I intended to write Mom and Mike a few words but now it's impossible therefore you will have to tell them that I'm okay.

The big picture looks swell and I'm looking forward now to meeting wix up with our Russians Allies and further than that to being with you once again and I hope forever.

Gee but this is a short letter dear but I guess it's better than none. Correct?

I can't help in thinking and dreaming of being with you again darling with everything going so well. I love you deeply and with constantly.

Forever yours,
Ben
