My Dearly Beloved Judy,

I havent fixed the typewriter but I beleive that it writes clear enough for you to read honey, therefore I make another attempt at using this beat up machine. If I every get the opportunity to go to France than I intend selling the typewriter cause Ill be able to collect one hundred or more dollars for it. Thats why I figure it pays for me to keep it a while longer.

We have an inkling of an idea of where are new section will be and approximately when we will move. The area is on the Rhine river in the vicinity of Frankfurt or Mannheim. Naturally I anticipate that my company will be billeted in a small town but thats not bad as we dont see the high brass from higher headquarters. The disadvantages are that in a city their is always more entertainment and better facilities. But when it comes to seeing a popular USO show transportation is always supplied for us. We have to be in our new position by next Wednesday therefore we probable will be moving on Monday or Tuesday.

This morning darling I had one of the best breakfasts since coming overseas. It consisted of fresh eggs, delicious pancakes and corn flakes with milk, tomatoe juice and coffee . The coffee is still GI which I dont like. Im depending on you dearest for preparing better coffee and it wont be a difficult job to innrove over the GI coffee.

I think that holding the eligible points for discharge at 85 was the best idea cause this way these men with the high points will be getting out of the Army first . I figured out that if the new scoring is taken nine months from the last one May 12th., Ill have my 85 points with one big point to spare. Very simple figuring. Ill be getting two points for every month. One for Army service and another points for each month longer overseas. Wouldnt that just be spendid my love, we could start then on our long road of happiness together . Pardon, instead of start I mean resume our long road of happiness together. Oh Oh here comes the sentence that ~~you~~ will burn you up after those encouraging words. Naturally sweetheart I dont expect to be a civilians in nine months unless something occurs before then that I cant foresee. Anyway I feel that its very nice to think about. Hope you dont mind cause thats about all thats Im thinking about, being with you again and forever.

Good night darling, and pleasant dreams, you bet
I'll have them dreaming of you,

all my love & kisses xxxxx
yours
Ben
