

To My

SWEETHEART

KIRCHBÜG, GERMANY

AUGUST, 1945

My Deary Beloved Judy,

It's a little late for a birthday gift,
and slightly early for a Christmas present, though you might receive this around then, therefore it's just a souvenir from Germany, with my highest hopes that someday I'll be able to fill this box with an assortment of items that you will cherish.

All my love goes with it, darling, and if still not air tight, an abundance of kisses to fill up the gaps.

Forever yours,
Ben
