My Darling Sweetheart,

Well that do you know,!. I finally received the letter from you that I-ve been waiting impatiently for. Telling me that you received some mail from me and I see where you got all the letters in one big batch. Now I can relax knowing that their isn't a third party intercepting the mail. Besides your lovely letter dated Sept 4th I also received your letters dated Sept 2nd and 3th.

That wasn't the first time that I wrote Mom a letter and addressed it to you darling but all the other times I ~~xxxxxx~~ managed to check myself before I would finish addressing the envelope. Thanks for forwarding the letter to Mom.

Don't have any fear as I am sure that I will be bringing this latest bracklet home with me. Thus far the bracklet has not once slipped off my ~~xxxx~~ wrist as the lock is much tighter than the others.

I-m anxious to receive your letter informing me that you have gotten the novelty box but I imagine that the package is taking its good old time.

I spoken to one of the fellows that just returned from the Jewish services held about forty miles from here. He related that they had a very nice time and that the food and quarters were exceptional. Instead of the usual chow lines the fellows ate at a resturant and were waited upon. The city ~~xxxx~~ where the services were held was beautiful being a resort city. The men were quartered in a hotel. I intend going up their next Sunday and Monday for the Jewish holiday. Name of town is Bad X Naudheim

This evening as per usual I went to the movies to see "Murder He Says" with Fred MacMurray which I thought was packed full of laughs. My reason for attending the show almost nightly is because their really isn't much more of anything else to do except fraternizing and I figure I can certainly wait just a while longer and do all my fraternizing with my sweetheart.

I miss you daily my darling and love you with all my heart, now and forevermore
