My Beloved Judy

Friday
Sept 21, 1945

This is my first & mail letter to you since 06 day and I explained the reason to you in your today's letter if you didn't receive it yet.

During the morning we got another one of those jobs in the arm work that awful needle. I hope that is the last operation I will be taking, we also had a show down inspection of all our clothing equipment and turning in all unnecessary equipment that we are to return to the States with.

In the afternoon we had a run to duffle bag's stenciled with the shipping markings, we also had our service records checked to be sure that it's correct. That completed today's work.

I was surprised to hear that starting October 1st the points will be lowered to 70. In my case that might mean that upon arrival in the States, I'd go directly to a separation center and home, and upon I'd return home a CIVILIAN & not that much wonderful all my love sweet heart and pleasant dreams
