My Beloved Judy,

Oct 6, 1945
Saturday

Now back at Camp St. Louis. We arrived here about 6:00 AM coming from Paris, had supper and at present writing to you from the ARC club. Going to the second show this evening to see the movie, "Sylvette Benne".

Last night as I write you yesterday we went to see the stage show "L'Alceste" which was good, but not up to expectations of what I thought. The theater was filled mostly with G.I.'s, including one Major General plus a few scattered Wacs and nurses. There were a few French civilians after the show we went into a bar to have a few drinks and I settled for beer then we proceeded home stopping off to get a few sandwiches to eat from the street peddler.

This morning I slept late when had breakfast did a little window shopping but didn't notice anything worthwhile in buying. Returned to the hotel for lunch, to have a excellent meal consisting of steak and french fried potatoes and delicious ice cream for dessert.

Today marks two years of being overseas darling, and I was hoping that by now I would have been on the high seas. I miss you every day of the two years sweet heart and continue to love you with all my heart now and forever.

Good night darling and pleasant dreams yours

Ben X X X
